

Hi,

My name is Anna Jerofejev. I'm 19 years old. I'm studying history at Eötvös Loránd University. I like reading about the Middle Age.

I'm coming from a small family. My father is from Russia so I'm really lucky that I have two native languages. Unfortunately I haven't got sisters or brothers. My friends say I'm a cheerful and sociable person. I live in Budapest but my favorite cities are Jalta, Paris. And Baja, where I spend my summer holidays at my grandmother's.

In my free time I like cycling, listening to music, watching the sunset, going to excursions and reading. My favorite novels are Ernest Hemingway: For whom the bell tolls; J. R. R. Tolkien: The Lord of the Rings etc. I like taking photos about sunset and clouds and walking in forest.

I like dancing. This is my favorite hobby. I used to try folk-dance and ballet. Nowadays I like latin dances: samba, cha-cha-cha, jive, rumba and salsa. My favorite dancers are: Melinda Törökgyörgy, András Faluvégi, Iringó Südi and Máté Mészáros.

I like sports. I go swimming every weekend and I do gymnastics every day.

I like music. I always listen to latin music but I like classical music too. I learnt playing the violin for ten years, but now I don't play solo, I'm playing in orchestra.

My favorite animal is dolphin. But I like small animals too; I used to have two hamsters.

My favorite food is jam pancake, and favorite films are: Dead poets' society; Sweet November and Dirty Dancing.
