

Hi, everyone, welcome on board ☺

My name is Viki, am going to be kind of a hostess at the Olympiad. Can't wait meeting and guiding you through the mysterious country of Hungary.

Well, what should I tell you about myself... a 20-year-old cheerful and witty university student, studying economics and international relations (so respect for you because of chemistry...).

Speak English, Italian, French, Russian, and a lil' bit of Hungarian ☺

Enough of me now, c u in July!
