

My name's Flóra (like the subway station in Prague ;-). I'm a student of Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Humanities. I study Czech and Hungarian linguistics and literature 4th year. I also speak Slovak and English and I learned French, German and Russian. I especially like Slavonic languages, now I'm interested in Serbian. I work as a translator. In my free time I like taking photos (I had exhibitions), reading, listening to music, watching European films and spending time with people.
