

Hæhæ! I am Kornélia Eszter Papp. I majored in linguistics, literature and Scandinavian studies at Eötvös University and at the University of Iceland. Currently, I am pursuing PhD studies in linguistics at Eötvös University. In my free time I like playing table tennis and I am a board game addict.

About my connections to chemistry? Well, I know how to say it in Icelandic☺.

I hope you will have lots of fun in Hungary.

Gangi ykkur vel!
