

Hello Everybody! (Sain baina uu?)

I'm András [Андрас], 22 years old. I live in Budapest and have been studying in ELTE University (Literature – Linguistics – Mongolian Philology, MA) since 2004.

My language skills: English (fluently), Mongolian, Russian (upper intermediate) and German (intermediate). I'm also studying Czech and French. I like linguistics, but prefer act(ion)s and practice than theories. I'm interested in traveling, exploration of other cultures and meeting with people or introducing them to each other.

My first route to Mongolia was in the summer of 2005: I spent 3 weeks with a Mongolian family in the yurt-district. Then in the fall of 2006 I was on a scholarship in Ulaanbaatar at „MUIS” University for 2 months. After that I moved to China and to Russia for 1-1 month. Every time I had many flashy, exciting moments in Asia, and I miss the friends, with whom I got acquainted there.

Now it's a certain kind of pleasure to be the part of the ICHO-team, I hope we all have great time here! C'mon guys, good luck! ;)

(PS: I like to cook very much! And not only buuz and huushur)
