

My name is Johanna Szőke. I'm 19 years old and I live in Hungary. I attend ELTE University, where I major in American English and in Russian. I am also studying Belorussian. At the university I'm part of the school paper and I'm part of the student council as well.

I'm really fond of languages; that's why I also plan to start Finnish, Spanish, Irish, and Old English, too – some time. At first glance it may seem a bit too much, but since I want to be a linguist, these languages are not useless... ☺ I would also like to be a teacher, and according to reach that dream I have been teaching English for 1 year now.

I really like reading (I always have at least one book in my backpack☺), mostly English and American literature. My favorite authors are Salinger, Kerouac, Mark Twain and I'm always open to new genres and stories. I also like listening to rock and Irish music. I also love sports. I like to swim, run and dance Irish step. I have been dancing for 1 and a half year.

I am very communicative; I love to make friends and to talk fast. You can always turn to me if you have a problem!
