

Hi!

My name is Livia, 21, I'm a third year student at the Faculty of Arts of Peter Pázmány Catholic University and I study Czech language and literature and journalism.

I studied Spanish for five years at the secondary school. Currently, I attend a travel guide course in Spanish that I really enjoy and I'm going to take the exam in June.

I love summer, sunshine, sea, rain, great strolls, traveling, novels, beautiful poems, my home, nature, theatre, cinema, tea, coffee houses and coconut... ☺

I don't like cold, wind, smoke, getting up early in the morning, running.

I love talking to my friends, making excursions, riding the bicycle together with my younger sister, looking into other people's eyes, smiling back at children, cooking, baking, learning languages, dreaming, listening to music loudly and it would be good to do sport and dance.

I'm interested in everything that is connected to Spanish language and culture. I was captivated by Spanish temperament. My dream is to travel around Spain and get to South America some time.

I'm looking forward to seeing you!

Livia Hári
